Berlin, June 1.

THE King of Pruſſia ſtill remains here reviewing his Troops, and it is ſaid will return to Potzdam on Monday or Tueſday next.

Hague, June 7, N. S. The States General have given Directions to the Council of State, and to the five Colleges of Admiralty, and to the Eaſt India Company, to publiſh forthwith the proper Orders for a Suſpenſion of Arms by Sea, in their reſpective Diſtricts. In Conſequence of the Reſolution which was taken ſome Months ago, to incorporate ſeveral of the Corps that are Priſoners of War in France, a Regulation has been made, according to which the Officers and private Men of thoſe Corps, who are Priſoners, are to enjoy their full Pay only to the 17th of this Month, after which the Officers are only to have a Penſion, and the private Men to be reduced to half Pay, till they have their Liberty. General Conſtrom has, in Obedience to an Order he lately received from the Prince of Orange, given up the Command of Bois le Duc to Lieutenant General Conſtant, and is now retired to his Country Seat. M. Iddikinga, who was lately Deputy from Groningen to the States General, has quitted that College, and taken his Seat in the Council of State; and, as M. Verelſt has been obliged, on Account of his ill State of Health, to reſign his Commiſſion of Deputy to the Dutch Army, the Council of State has appointed M. Iddikinga to ſucceed him. M. de Freyra, the King of Portugal's Miniſter to the States General, arrived here this Morning.
